

Business Events 『Be+』 Unique Service Menu

Category	Activity	Drawing without a brush - Japanese paper art experience in Tokyo
Field	Japanese Culture

This is not just about making paper, it's "Japanese paper art," or making a drawing. It's a new art form through which participants squeeze dyed fibers to make a drawing. It's a new papermaking process that's enjoyable for young and old alike. Participants will create one drawing each.

Price (JPY)	70,000	Language	Japanese	Venue	Hinodecho (Tokyo)
Capacity	10	Program duration	90 min.

*Reservation required

A new, simplified version of a process most believe requires a craftsman. A creative experience program covering everything from the process to applications. It's a new art form through which participants squeeze dyed fibers to make a drawing.

【Notes】

- ※Additional charge of 7,000 yen/person if over 10 participants (max 20)
- ※Payment required in advance.
- ※Price includes cost of materials.
- ※Items to bring: Towel to wipe hands
- ※Clothing:
 - Comfortable clothing
 - Clothing that can handle moisture, or an apron
- ※Each participant will create one item.
It takes approx. 3 days to properly dry.
All creations will be sent to the participants by the instructor.
- ※Transportation fee to be borne by participants.

【Schedule (sample)】

- [1]Instructor guidance (approx. 10 min.)
- [2]Based on instructor guidance, experience paper art (approx. 80 min.)

Contact Business events 『Be+』 ohuchi@kokoropro.com | event.kokoropro.com